District Attorney

REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL (RFP) LEGAL SERVICES

FOR THE OFFICE OF THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY

RFP NO. 2026-01

Issue Date: Sunday January 25, 2026

Proposal Due Date: Friday, February 13, 2026, at 3:00 PM

I. INTRODUCTION

A. RFP OVERVIEW

The Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office invites qualified New Mexico Licensed attorney(s) to assist in the prosecution(s) regarding any criminal cases at the discretion of the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office and under the supervision of the District Attorney.

The purpose of this procurement is to select a law firm to provide legal services to the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office at the discretion of the District Attorney, including representation of the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office in other selected matters. The Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office reserves the right to award multiple firms.

Selection for selected matter assignments: As the need arises for legal services, The Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office may identify firms who may have been awarded a contract that are eligible to submit proposals and a fee for legal services. The responses will be reviewed and evaluated by the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office, after which the firm provides a proposal for assignment/engagement at a fee determined by the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office to be fair and reasonable. The Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office reserves the right to utilize other selection methods appropriate to specific assignments/engagements.

B. BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office represents the people of Grant County, Hidalgo County, and Luna County and is charged with the duties of initiating and conducting aggressive prosecution of criminal offenses pursuant to Section 36-1-18NMSA.

C. SCOPE OF WORK

The successful offeror(s) will provide legal services as prosecutor on criminal cases for the Sixth Judicial District Attorney. This position requires comprehensive and current knowledge, skills and experience in prosecuting criminal cases including and effective experience as lead prosecuting attorney on criminal jury trials. The Offeror(s) must have the ability to draft legal documents, research/analyze information, and the ability to work effectively with Law Enforcement agencies. Offerors must be able to devote sufficient time and attention to the prosecution of assigned cases. Familiarity with the courts, local rules and practices, and criminal justice agencies in the Sixth Judicial Districts would be beneficial.

D. RFP DETAILS

This procurement will result in a contractual agreement between two parties; the procurement may ONLY be used by those two parties exclusively.

Award Information will be posted electronically on the Sixth Judicial District Court's website?

Cancellation. The Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office reserves the right to cancel without penalty, this RFP, any resultant purchase order/agreement, or any portion thereof for convenience, unsatisfactory performance, or unavailability of funds.

Clarifications. Any clarifications of instructions, terms and conditions, insurance, or offer preparation shall be made only by the contact shown on this RFP. All clarification questions should be submitted to the Procurement Manager listed in paragraph F.

Modifications. Only modifications received prior to the date and time specified before closing will be accepted. No modifications will be accepted after the opening. Technical clarifications of the offer may be requested by the Procurement Manager following the opening.

Offer Submittal. Offers must be submitted to the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office listed in Section 1 Paragraph D.

Period for Offer Acceptance. Offeror agrees that any offer made submitted will be good for a period of forty-five (45)-calendar days; an additional time period may be requested in the RFP Scope of Work.

Public Information. All information, except that classified as confidential, will become public information at the time that the RFP is awarded. As a state institution, The Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office is subject to the NM Inspection of Public Records Act (IPRA), so unless there is an exception under the law, documents in the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office possession are subject to review by any member of the public. Confidential information must be marked "CONFIDENTIAL" in red letters in the upper right-hand corner of the pages containing the confidential information. Price and information concerning the specifications cannot be considered confidential.

Rejection of Offers. The Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office reserves the right to make an award based on the evaluation criteria contained herein, to reject any and all offers.

Right to waive minor irregularities. The state procurement manager, or a central purchasing office may waive technical irregularities in the form of the bid or proposal of the low bidder or offeror which do not alter the price, quality or quantity of the services.

Taxes. The Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office is exempt from Federal Excise Taxes and from New Mexico Gross Receipts Taxes on materials. Services are not exempt. Taxes on services should be included as a separate line item and not included in the base price offer. Applicable taxes are excluded from the RFP evaluation. A tax-exempt certificate can be made available by the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office Manager.

Withdrawal of Offers. Offers may be withdrawn by written notice, electronically or in person by an Offeror or an authorized representative at any time prior to the submittal due date and time.

Changes. The Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office may make changes within the general scope of any resultant purchase order/agreement by giving notice to the firm and subsequently confirming such changes in writing. If such changes affect the cost of or the time required for performance of a resultant Purchase Order/Agreement, an appropriate equitable adjustment shall be made. No change by firm shall be recognized without written approval of the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office. Any claim of firm for an adjustment under this Paragraph must be made in writing within thirty (30) days from the date of receipt by firm of notification of such change.

Nothing in this Paragraph shall excuse the firm from proceeding with the performance of the Purchase Order/Agreement as changed hereunder. Changes or alterations after an award can only be made if agreed in writing by the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office.

Disclosure of proposal contents. The proposals will be kept confidential until the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office awards a professional services agreement. At that time, all proposals and documents pertaining to the proposals will be open to the public, except for the material that is proprietary or confidential. The Procurement Managers will not disclose or make public any pages of a proposal on which the firm has stamped or imprinted "proprietary" or "confidential" subject to the following requirements. Proprietary or confidential data shall be readily separable from the proposal in order to facilitate eventual public inspection of the non-confidential portion of the proposal. Confidential data is normally restricted to confidential financial information concerning the firm's organization and data that qualifies as a trade secret in accordance with the Uniform Trade Secrets Act, 57-3A-1 to 57-3A-7 NMSA 1978. The price of products offered, or the cost of services proposed shall not be designated a proprietary or confidential information. If a request is received for disclosure of data for which a firm has made a written request for confidentiality, the Sixth Judicial District Attorney Office shall examine the firms' request and make a written determination that specifies which portions of the proposal should be disclosed. Unless the firm takes legal action to prevent the disclosure, the proposal will be disclosed. The proposal shall be open to public inspection subject to any continuing prohibition on the disclosure of confidential data.

Employee Certification. The firms and all firms' employees utilized on the work to be performed under this RFP must have the proper certification(s) and license(s) to comply with State and Local requirements in regard to the work to be performed under this RFP.

Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action. In performing or providing the services and goods required under a resultant Purchase Order/Agreement, each party shall be an equal opportunity employer and shall conform to all affirmative action and other applicable requirements; accordingly, each party shall neither discriminate nor permit discrimination in its operations or employment practices against any person or group of persons on the basis of race, age, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, physical or mental handicap or medical condition, sexual preference, prior military involvement or any other manner prohibited by law.

Indemnification and Insurance. Firm assumes the entire responsibility and liability for losses, expenses, damages, demands and claims in connection with or arising out of any actual or alleged personal injury (including death) and/or damage or destruction to property sustained or alleged to have been sustained in connection with or arising out of the goods delivered by firm or the performance of the work by firm its agents, employees, subcontractors or consultants, except to the extent of liability arising out of the negligent performance of the work by or willful misconduct of the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office. Firm shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office, its officers, agents, and employees from any and all liability for such losses, expenses, damages, demands, and claims and shall defend any suit or action brought against any or all of them based on any actual or alleged personal injury or damages and shall pay any damage costs and expenses including attorneys' fees, in connection with or resulting from such suit or action. Firm will also indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office against any joint and several liabilities imposed against the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office with respect to strict products liability claims attributable to the fault of the firm. Firm agrees that it and its sub-contractors will maintain general liability, product liability and property damage insurance in reasonable amounts (at least equal to the New Mexico Tort Claims Act limits) covering the above obligation and will maintain workers' compensation coverage covering all employees performing under a resultant Purchase Order/Agreement on premises occupied by or under the control of the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office. The liability of the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office will be subject in all cases to the immunities and limitations of the New Mexico Tort Claims Act, Sections 41-4-1 et seq. NMSA 1978, as amended."

Independent Business. Neither Firm nor any of its agents shall be treated as an employee of the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office for any purpose whatsoever. Firm declares that firm is engaged in an independent business and has complied with all federal, state, and local laws regarding business permits and licenses of any kind that may be required to carry out the said business and the tasks to be performed under any resultant Purchase Order/Agreement. Firm further declares that it is engaged in the same or similar activities for other clients and that the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office is not firm's sole or only client or customer.

Option to Renew. The Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office reserves the option to renew a resultant contract if such renewal is mutually agreed to and found to be in the best interest of the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office. Renewal options will be exercised in one-year increments and in accordance with 13-1-150 NMSA, 1978.

Ownership of Documents. All documents which are prepared by the firm or any member of the consulting team that form a part of its services under a resultant Purchase Order/Agreement are the sole property of the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office and such works may not be reproduced nor distributed without the express written consent of the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office and shall be delivered to the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office upon termination and or completion of this Purchase Order/Agreement if the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office so requests. The firm shall be responsible for the protection and/or replacement of any original documents in its possession.

Penalties. The Procurement Code, Section 13-1-28 et seq. NMSA 1978, as amended, imposes civil and criminal penalties for its violation. In addition, the New Mexico criminal statutes impose criminal penalties for bribes, gratuities, and kickbacks.

Schedule Delays. If after the award, the firm becomes aware of possible problems that could result in delay in completion of the work on the agreed-to schedule; the firm must immediately notify the Procurement Manager or the designated representative. The initial notification of the delay may be verbal with a written confirmation, giving the probable cause and effect, with recommendations for alternate action. Nothing in this paragraph will be interpreted as relieving the firm of its contractual obligations; however, failure to notify the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office promptly will be basis for determining the firm's responsibility in an otherwise excusable delay.

Termination and Delays. The Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office may by written notice stating the extent and effective date, terminate any resultant Purchase Order/Agreement for convenience in whole or in part, at any time. The Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office shall pay firm as full compensation for performance until such termination: (1) the unit or pro rata order price for the delivered and accepted portion: and (2) incidental damages, not otherwise recoverable from other sources by firm, as approved by the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office, with respect to the undelivered or unaccepted portion of any resultant Purchase Order/Agreement provided compensation hereunder shall in no event exceed the total contracted price. Such amount will be limited to firms' s actual cost and may not include anticipated profits. The Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office shall not be liable for consequential damages. The Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office may by written notice terminate any resultant Purchase Order/Agreement in whole or in part for firms' s default if firm refuses or fails to comply with the provisions of a resultant Purchase Order/Agreement or fails to make progress so as to endanger performance and does not cure such failure within a reasonable period of time. In such event, the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office may otherwise secure the materials, supplies or services ordered, and firm shall be liable for damages suffered by the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office thereby, including incidental and consequential damages. If after notice of termination, the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office determines firm was not in default, or if firm's default is due to failure of the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office, termination shall be deemed for the convenience of the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office. The rights and remedies of the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office provided in this paragraph shall not be exclusive and are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law or under a resultant Purchase Order/Agreement as used in this paragraph, the word "firm" includes firm and firm's suppliers at any tier.

Workers Compensation. No workers compensation insurance has been or will be obtained by the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office on account of firm or its employees or agents. Firm shall comply with the workers compensation laws with respect to firm and firm's employees and agents.

COMPENSATION

The successful offerors shall comply with all contracting and billing procedures of the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office and State of New Mexico, including each offeror submitting an accurate monthly service log, which summarizes performance with each invoice. Attorney's must have access to the internet and a working e-mail address and the ability to utilize the technology necessary for effective representation. Attorneys who accept assignments for cases will be required to enter detailed case activity into the identified case management system.

Offerors shall agree to submit monthly invoices to the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office between the first and fifteenth day of each contract month for services performed the month prior. Invoices received sixty (60) days or more after the fifteen days will not be paid, absent a finding of extenuating circumstances by the Chief Financial Officer or District Attorney.

III PROPOSAL EVALUATION AND SELECTION PROCESS

A. SELECTION COMMITTEE

The completed proposals will be reviewed by a selection committee for accurateness and completeness. Each prospective proposer must address all elements required by this RFP. Proposals will be further evaluated by the selection committee based on the evaluation factors listed below. Proposers are hereby informed that in making evaluations and determinations, The Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office is not restricted to the minimum information required for proposals and that any relevant information regarding the evaluation criteria from reliable sources may be considered. The Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office may also require additional relevant information related to the proposer's past performance or present capability to perform the legal services. The following is a summary of the evaluation factors with the point value assigned to each. These, along with the general requirements, will be used in the evaluation of proposer's proposal.

B. EVALUATION CRITERIA

Experience in providing legal services outlined in paragraph C Scope of Work – 80 possible points.

- a) Experience of the firm and the individual attorney(s) as to prosecuting criminal cases. Please provide the years of experience in this area of law, the types of criminal cases handled, and client references, where available. The Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office may request supplemental information, if needed to evaluate the proposal. Experience with state agencies, other governmental entities, and criminal law in the State of New Mexico.
- b) Brief history of the firm, including resumes for the personnel proposed to provide legal services
- c) Professional memberships, certifications, licenses, and other qualifications for key individuals assigned to the District Attorney's office.

Cost of Services – 20 possible points.

- a) Proposer should indicate the hourly rate for each provider of legal services identified in the proposal.
- b) Proposer should indicate how fees will be billed to the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's Office (i.e., 0.1-hour increments, fixed fees, other proposal)

c) Proposer should indicate Government rates, or any other discount available to the District Attorney's Office.

d) Proposer should identify the anticipated rate increase for each provider of legal services during the term of any resulting contract. (e.g., rates applicable to year 1, year 2, etc.) NOTE: Fees may be increased not more than once every twelve (12) months during the contract term.

Additional Materials

Proposers may include other materials that they feel may improve the quality of their Proposal submissions and/or are pertinent to this RFP.

C. PREFERNCE AWARDS

RESIDENT/NATIVE AMERICAN RESIDENT BUSINESS PREFERNCE:

A Resident Business or Native American Resident Business shall be awarded the equivalent of eight percent of the total possible points to be awarded based on the Resident or Native American business possessing a valid Resident or Native American Resident Business certificate in accordance with NMSA 1978, Section 13-1-21. If applicable, document the residential preference number in the authorized signature form and attached your certificate to your response.

Resident/Native American veteran's businesses with annual revenues of $6M or less in the preceding tax year are to receive a 10% preference discount on their bids and proposals.

This preference is separate from the current in state preference and is not cumulative with that preference. However, veteran businesses will still receive the in-state preference once the veteran's preference cap is exceeded.

Points will be awarded based on Offerors ability to provide a copy of a current Resident/Native American Veteran Business Certificate.

In addition, the Resident/Native American Resident Veterans Business Preference Certification Form must accompany any RFP and any business wishing to receive a Resident/Native American Veteran Business Preference must complete and sign the form.

RFPs are to be evaluated on preference as follows:

In addition to the total points on the RFP, 10% must be added for preference award. For example, the RFP has a total value of 100 points. Five proposals are received: one from a resident business, one from a resident veteran's business with a 10% preference and three non-resident businesses. The two preference businesses would receive 50 points and 100 points to their already evaluated score, making it possible for the highest score 110.

APPENDIX A

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RECIEPT FORM

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RECEIPT FORM

This optional Acknowledgement of Receipt Form establishes a distribution list to be used for the distribution of written responses to questions, and/or any amendments to the RFP. Failure to return the Acknowledgement of Receipt Form does not prohibit potential Offerors from submitting a response to this RFP. However, by not returning the Acknowledgement of Receipt Form the potential Offeror's representative shall not be included on the distribution
